

I'm not able to obtain any blood pressure measurements.

Inconsistent results can have many different causes. The most common cause of invalid readings is related to insufficient tail volume, as indicated by a low tail temperature.

Please send us a sample of your data in Simple Report form, a few screenshots of the graphs from that session, and a photo of your animal set up. We will be happy to review it with you.